

Gay Lifeline

A Resource Directory for New Hampshire and Vermont

Published by Rainbow Resources of NH, Inc.

Spring 2010

Welcome!

Rainbow Resources of NH, Inc. and the Gay Info Line of NH are proud to present this Winter 2010 Gay Lifeline guide to the Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender (GLBT) community of northern New England.

Our cover artist is Jean Adie, a generous volunteer. Jean, a multi-media artist, designer and marketing consultant, is available for a variety of creative projects by request at ganoonah@yahoo.com. A slide show of some of her work can be viewed on www.templeofthesun.blogspot.com. Many thanks to her and to all the other folks who help make this all possible.

We hope you find Gay Lifeline both attractive and useful and will send us your suggestions to further improve future editions. We also encourage everyone to note any errors or omissions they find here and report them to us. As always we need volunteers to help with resource information, including updates, deletes and new listings of resources. Please email us with any corrections you can make, and also if you would like to help.

You can order a spiral bound copy of this booklet at our cost of $14.

Introduction

The Gay Info Line of New Hampshire was the brainchild of a group of folks from the southern part of the state. They developed the first database of GLBT resources and manned a telephone in Nashua, giving out information to callers for ten years before they disbanded. In the early 90's CAGLR, the Citizens' Alliance for Gay and Lesbian Rights, took over the line and moved it to their Concord office. There Jim Bretz, Mandy Vernalia and a new crew of volunteers took over, expanding the database, answering many thousands of calls and printing two 'hard copy' Gay Lifeline directories for the community by the end of that decade.

In 2000, the Gay Info Line moved into the new millennium with a new name, Rainbow Resources of New Hampshire, Inc., and obtained 501(C)(3) status from the IRS. We put our searchable database of resource information on the Internet at <http://www.RainbowResources-NH.org>, and within a year our site was getting hundreds of hits a month. In 2001 the database of information was expanded to include GLBT and allied businesses of all kinds and the phone line was soon discontinued. In 2004, we produced our first electronic Gay Lifeline, this PDF community directory, which is updated several times each year. We will provide bound printouts of the current edition by mail for $14.

Almost all the work of Rainbow Resources is done by committed volunteers, but we still have expenses which must be covered by community donations. Unfortunately in 2007 and 2008 we received far less than our annual expenses in contributions and only continued by using up savings previously earmarked for technology upgrades. So in 2009 we went all electronic. Now all resources must provide an email address for RR to keep in contact. No more fundraising snail mailings will be sent, We will soon be moving to a free, community-based server running SQL.

Please consider making a tax deductible donation to help us keep this information current and available. Many thanks.

Important Information About This Directory

This electronic document contains the entire Rainbow Resources of NH database of about 600 resources for the Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender (GLBT) community of New Hampshire and neighboring parts of the adjacent states of MA, VT and ME. The information is organized into 36 categories and these categories are presented in groups. First are the many categories of GLBT and allied social groups of all kinds, then meeting places and GLBTQ media, then professionals and service oriented folks, and finally the resources you call for help, like crisis phone lines and domestic violence agencies.

Within each category resources are listed by state, by town and then listed alphabetically by name. All the usual information about each listing is given--snail, email and internet addresses, phone, fax and hotline numbers. Information about meetings, newsletters and a short narrative description are included. Rainbow Resources gave each listing the chance to identify themselves as GLBT. Although many GLBT's chose not to identify themselves in this way, those that did are indicated in the listings as 'GLBT identified'. No assumptions should be made about anyone's sexual orientation because they are included in this directory.

You can use the bookmarks in the PDF to go right to the category you want to look at. The Category names are listed at the beginning of each section in large white letters on a black ground.

Although every effort is made to keep this information up to date, some errors are inevitable. Also, the information contained here generally was provided to us by the resources themselves, and Rainbow Resources has not done any research whatsoever to determine if anyone might have misrepresented their qualifications, interests or expertise. So we encourage everyone to approach these listings with the same skepticism you would use in any other new enterprise. By their inclusion in this publication these listed resources have indicated their interest in working with the GLBT community; you must determine for yourself if an individual or organization included here is likely to fulfill your needs.

Once again we encourage you to give us feedback about Gay Lifeline, about the information it contains and also about your experience with the listed resources. We strive to provide current, accurate and useful information for and about the community. Email us at webmistress@rainbowresources-nh.org or write us at the address on the previous page.

A "Bear" refers to a slice of gay culture that changes over time. Generally Bears are men who retain (or cultivate) body and or facial hair (as opposed to the shaved-chest look), and are often tall, heavy, husky, stocky, and/or muscular. Bellies and Beef are Good. More than that, Bears are relaxed, open, friendly, no-attitude, welcoming sorts: think "Friendly Good Ol' Boys." There is no 'expectaton' that you must attend certain events nor boring organizational meetings. Call yourself a New Hampshire Bear and you are one. Monthly socials, educational events, charitable events (holiday Toy Drive), summer Beach weekend.

Please Help Rainbow Resources Improve Gay Lifeline

Every year people move, go out of business and new folks come along to replace those lost and gone, and this directory is only as good as the information it contains. Rainbow Resources has just completed a major update of hundreds of the resources contained here, but still we know there is much work yet to be done. Can you help us? Just drop us an email when you know of a new gay venue, web site, or organization. If no one tells us, we cannot spread the very word that makes community. If you know our information is incorrect, please let us know that too. The work of keeping this information current falls to a very small group of people who truly cannot succeed without the help of the community. Thanks for helping us.

 Here's some info for you, Rainbow Resources:* _____

You can also help Rainbow Resources by giving out our business cards. Pin a few on bulletin boards wherever you go! Hand them out at lesbian or gay events.

Please send me 20____, 50____, 100____ Rainbow Resources business cards.*

I'd like to get involved personally in helping Rainbow Resources do this work.

Please call me. My number is:_____ Best time to call is:_____*

If you can help financially, please do so. Rainbow Resources runs on a skeleton budget of small personal donations. We are all volunteers and use our own computers and software. Plus, all donations are tax deductible. Your $50 donation makes a huge difference to us.
